

Learning, Invention and Creativity: Rethinking Local and Global Education

Online International Conference

11 March 2021, 10am-2pm CET/9am-1pm GMT

Cultural experiences of pedagogy and good practice when adapting teaching, learning and supporting children's education in contemporary challenging contexts

KATOLIKUS FŐISKOLA

UNIVERSITY OF WINCHESTER

APOR VILMOS CATHOLIC
COLLEGE AND THE UNIVERSITY
OF WINCHESTER IN ASSOCIATION
WITH THE COMENIUS
ASSOCIATION

A free event in English language to explore and share innovative pedagogy in schools during a global pandemic.

Key note speakers include Richard Dunne, The Harmony Project; Miklós Thaisz, Hungarian Charity Service of the Order of Malta; Ross Young and Felicity Ferguson, Writing for Pleasure. Workshops and Q&A sessions include academics and student-teachers from European countries presenting recent pedagogic research and reflections on classroom experiences.

Register at: EHSCresource@winchester.ac.uk by 22 February 2021

Enquiries please contact: Jonathan.Rooke@winchester.ac.uk or Streitmann.Agnes@avkf.hu