

New Erasmus Generation

- Comenius Association Virtual Meeting
 - 29th October 2020

New Erasmus Generation

- Erasmus 2021 – 2027 – new elements
 - - Blended mobility for students and staff
 - - International opening of KA103 (in addition to KA107)
 - - More digital
 - - More inclusive
 - - More green

New Erasmus Generation

More inclusive internationalisation:

- More inclusive approach:
 - students with disabilities;
 - students from disadvantaged background (lower socio-economic backgrounds; minority groups – ethnicity; religious identity; gender; migrants; refugees; working students; with family obligations) ;
 - non-mobile or less mobile students (specific subject areas like teacher training)
- More holistic approach (better collaboration of higher education stakeholders at different levels)

New Erasmus Generation

- Activities to promote a more inclusive internationalisation:
- -complementary formats in terms of duration and delivery;
- -blended learning – digital is not always more inclusive;
- -joint study programmes
- -Internationalisation at home – integrating international and intercultural dimensions into the formal and informal curriculum
- -link internationalisation abroad and internationalisation at home activities
- -proper integration on campus, avoid “ghettoisation” and stigmatisation
- -provide tailor-made guidance
