

SAVE THE DATE - Seminar invitation 19-22 March 2019

Liège, Belgium organized by: Comenius Association – Workgroup Migration

Rethinking the classroom in times of superdiversity II

A follow up on last year's seminar on how superdiversity and migration change education.

3 Keynote speakers

Wednesday 20/03: on policies in migration and its effect on classroom realities

Thursday 21/03: on tools and best practises, testimonials on classroom experiences. Both in English and in French!

Friday 22/03: on courses, modules and approaches in teacher education. How does this translate to the curriculum?

9 Workshops linked to the topic of that particular day.

Target group This is for you if you work in education and if you feel migration has an impact on classrooms, on teachers and on education. This is for you if you teach in higher education and want to share how you deal with this widening diversity. This is for you if you need input on what is being done and needs to be done for teachers to feel better prepared.

Venue : HELMo Liège, Belgium

Funding : This seminar can be financed with an STT Erasmus+ grant.

Registration : online registration via HELMo. Info via www.associationcomenius.org

Call for workshops : If you have an experience worth sharing, write down a workshop proposal (max. ½ page or 400 words) and send it to Niomi Kelly (niomi.kelly@thomasmore.be) before November 16th 2018.